Usage of the word “yahoos” by chapter:

0, 0, 0, 0, 1, 3, 5, 9, 4, 5, 21, 7, 13, 8, 7]

(This is interesting because the novel is broken into various parts of Gulliver's traveling to different lands, and from the usage we can see that Gulliver encountered yahoos towards the end of his travels.)

The quote “For although few men will avow their desires of being immortal, upon such hard conditions, yet in the two kingdoms before mentioned, of Balnibarbi and Japan, he observed that every man desired to put off death some time longer, let it approach ever so late: and he rarely heard of any man who died willingly, except he were incited by the extremity of grief or torture.” appeared in Chapter 26 of the book.

A randomly generated sentence based on Swift’s writing style:

“The young nobility, courtiers, and field mice, with us within two equal to have arrived at court, whether I would.”
